Compare:	Point out differences and similarities in an ordered sequence within the same argument.
Contemporary:	Cutting-edge art from around the 1970s to the present day.
Contextualise:	Relating to, or depending on the framework of information; relating to the situation, time/era and location to which the information refers.
Discuss:	Present your point of view and give reasons for your statements.
Explain:	Clarify and give reasons for your statement.
Formal elements of art:	The basic elements used to create a work of art, such as line, shape, tone, texture, colour, space, composition, et cetera.
Interpret:	Analyse and evaluate (give an informed opinion of) an artwork. Contextualise it historically, culturally, socially, politically, et cetera and substantiate your findings by referring to similar specific examples.
State:	Give exact facts and say directly what you think – give your opinion, as well as an explanation.
Substantiate:	To support/motivate with proof or evidence.
Visual sources:	The reproduced images that are provided in this question paper or referred to in other sources.

ANSWER ANY FIVE QUESTIONS.

QUESTION 1: THE VOICE OF EMERGING ARTISTS

French Post-Impressionist, Paul Cézanne, and South African, Vusi Khumalo, both created artworks which give us a glimpse into their different environments.

1.1 Compare the artworks in FIGURE 1a and FIGURE 1b by referring to the following:

- Media and techniques
- Colour
- Perspective
- Style
- Possible message/meaning

(10)

1.2 Write an essay in which you include at least TWO artworks you have studied that portray scenes from the environment.

Your essay must include the following:

- Name(s) of artist(s) and titles of works
- Material and techniques
- Style
- Formal elements
- Composition

QUESTION 2: SOUTH AFRICAN ARTISTS INFLUENCED BY AFRICAN AND/OR INDIGENOUS ART FORMS

QUESTION 4: ART, CRAFT AND SPIRITUAL WORKS MAINLY FROM RURAL SOUTH AFRICA

Both Helen Martins and Credo Mutwa are outsider artists, who created large sculptural environments that portrayed personal spiritual beliefs.

Helen Martins (FIGURE 4a) created her environmental pieces at her home with the help from locals such as Koos Malgas. The works were the physical manifestation of her personal visions based on Biblical and Eastern philosophies. Owls were a recurring theme in her work.

Credo Mutwa's sculptural piece (FIGURE 4b) reflects a creation myth, also referring to the family that sits around the fire, while the parents teach rituals and beliefs through story. Large birds surround the group of figures.

4.1 Study the visual sources in FIGURE 4a and FIGURE 4b and write a short essay using the following:

- Give a brief description of the artworks.
- Why have the artists placed their art in an outside area? Give reasons for your answer.
- Scale and space
- Styles and techniques
- What do you think is the function of the owls in FIGURE 4a?
- Why do you think were the figures portrayed naked in FIGURE 4b?
- Why have both the artists used cement in their works? Give reasons for your answer.

(10)

4.2 Compare at least TWO artworks, crafts or spiritual works that you have studied.

You must refer to the following:

- Name(s) of artist(s) or crafter(s) and the titles of the artworks
- Formal art elements
- Material(s) and technique(s)
- Function and/or message

(10)

QUESTION 7: GENDER ISSUES: MASCULINITY AND FEMININITY

Contemporary artists Berlinde de Bruyckere (FIGURE 7a) and Nicola Samori (FIGURE 7b) continue the tradition of using the human form in their work. They address male/female frailty/vulnerability often with underlying feelings of fear and terror.

7.1 Compare FIGURE 7a and FIGURE 7b and discuss how these artists have expressed human frailty/vulnerability by using the following criteria:

- How did the use of media affect the mood in each artwork?
- How has the concept of traditional beauty been distorted?
- FIGURE 7b shows a strong influence of Baroque art. Explain this statement and refer to any other stylistic influences in both works.
- Which artwork do you think expresses a sense of frailty/vulnerability best? Give reasons for your answer.

(10)

7.2 Discuss the work of any TWO artists you have studied, whose works portray gender issues in society.

You must use the following in your answer:
